University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine - VBMA Chapter

Hello!

It is my pleasure to inform you that Simmons Mid-Atlantic and the SEF will again be awarding the Simmons Educational Fund Business Aptitude Award. The details are as follows:

- Open to all 3rd year Penn VBMA Members
- One award will be presented for $3,000 with an engraved plaque
- Applicants must submit a resume along with a short essay type answer to the following question:

“As a new graduate, what can I bring to a practice that will help improve the practice’s bottom line?”

All VBMA Chapters are participating in the SEF Business Aptitude Award. The winners from each Chapter become eligible to enter the $15,000 National Award to be chosen from all the $3,000 award winners. The national award winner also receives a trip to 2019 VMX (NAVC) in Orlando in order to receive the award. This includes:

- Tuition to the conference
- Round trip coach airfare
- Lodging at one of the host hotels (3 nights)
- A per diem to help cover cost of food and other incidentals

You can submit your entries to me by Friday, March 2, 2018. The address and email are below. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David McCormick, MS, CVA
